

Chris Davis, Partner

Chris has worked in corporate restructuring and recovery for over 14 years. Chris qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 2007 and has worked on a variety of restructuring assignments, including advising multinational companies and their stakeholders.

Prior to joining Talbot Hughes McKillop, Chris worked for Kroll's corporate recovery practice.

Major Recent Projects

- Current CFO of a group of Irish based companies in the property development sector. This has included the establishment and ongoing management of the group finance function and capital raising of €0.5 billion+ for investment and development purposes.
- Providing project management support to the Board of Azincourt Investment SL during the £381 million financial restructuring of FCC's UK business (formerly Waste Recycling Group).
- Supporting the Restructuring Committee of Bulgarian Telecommunications Company AD (trading as Vivacom) during the restructuring of the group's €2 billion+ capital structure. Ongoing coordination of the wind down and liquidation of the remaining Dutch and Bulgarian group companies post restructuring.
- Delivery of restructuring solutions to a c£116 million portfolio of Enterprise Zone loan investments.