

Neil Douglas, Managing Director

Neil has over 14 years experience specialising in financial and operational restructuring in complex multi-national environments.

Neil has worked in the UK, Europe and Asia and his experience includes working in the health care, manufacturing, hospitality and leisure, insurance and real estate sectors

Major Recent Projects

- Adviser to the board of a major UK health care provider, in connection with its ongoing financial restructuring.
- Adviser to the securitisation vehicles of Punch Taverns plc, in connection with its £2.2 billion financial restructuring.
- Adviser to the Board of Travelodge, a UK based budget hotel operator, supporting management in the development and implementation of a financial and operational restructuring.
- Adviser to the Board on the restructuring of Quinn Group Limited, a private conglomerate of manufacturing and insurance businesses, headquartered in Ireland, during its €1.2 billion financial restructuring and corporate reorganisation to ring-fence the key manufacturing businesses.