

We are pleased to announce that Anthony Place has been promoted to Partner at Talbot Hughes McKillop

Anthony has 14 years experience working with stressed and distressed companies primarily in Europe and Asia. Prior to joining Talbot Hughes McKillop, he worked in the corporate restructuring practices of Arthur Andersen and Ernst & Young. Anthony also spent a year on secondment in the acquisition finance department of a major European bank, during which time he was a member of several steering committees on high profile restructurings.

Anthony has advised across a broad variety of industries for a range of stakeholders including corporate boards, bank syndicates and shareholders, and has significant experience of conducting business reviews, crisis management and designing and implementing cash management processes.

Major recent projects include acting as adviser to the Boards of Four Seasons Health Care (c£1.6 billion total debt), Johnson Service Group plc (c£200 million total debt) and Cementbouw BV (c£225 million total debt) on their successful financial restructurings.

About Talbot Hughes McKillop

THM provides hands-on, senior level leadership to restructuring situations. We focus on working for companies in stressed and distressed situations to identify and deliver robust solutions that preserve stakeholder value. The THM approach is to deploy small dedicated teams in complex restructurings, bringing independence, trust and objectivity to negotiations with the stakeholders. Our role may be either advisory or involve THM individuals assuming a management or Board position, as appropriate.

Talbot Hughes McKillop LLP is authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority. Registered in England No: OC340120. Registered Office: 6 Snow Hill, London EC1A 2AY
